

Pub fundraising ideas

Fill your pub and get your customers raising money to help stop prostate cancer being a killer

Hold a regular quiz night?

Use our free quiz including eight rounds, host script, question and answer sheets.

Raffle: Ask your suppliers to donate prizes such as hampers and experience days to make your raffle a great success.

Tickets: Whatever event you decide to host, turn it into an instant fundraiser by charging an entry fee. Why not ask people for a £5 entry to a comedy night?

Priority seating: Ask your guests to make a donation when reserving priority seating for the big match on the box. Or charge for service to their table.

Afternoon tea: Not everyone wants a pint of mild do they? Tea and cakes could bring new customers to your pub.

BBQs: Summer or winter it doesn't matter. Get your grill on. Our website is packed full of recipes and ideas to get you started.

Get us on the menu: Add a special dish or beer to the menu. Make your bestseller a Men United Ale and donate 10% of every pint sold.

Collection tins and badges on the bar: Ask for a donation for our popular Men United badges.

Tips in a jar and guess the amount of money in it: A really easy way to get your customers raising money.

Football predictor: Download from our pub resources website and get your customers predicting the results each week.

Cake sale: Ask your regulars to brew up a storm and see who is the king or queen of the bake off.

Good arrows: Set up a darts tournament, and make those 180's really count.

Race nights: Show a race no one will have seen and get everyone to have a little wager on the winner.

Poker: Get a full house and flush out the poker faces in your pub with a game of Texas Hold'em

Pub Olympics: Beer pong, pool, snooker, bowls, darts and skittles can easily be a fun and competitive way to fundraise. Host a tournament charging an entry fee for each game and crown your pub's Olympic champion.

We hold race nights, quiz nights and Prostate Cancer UK badges on the bar, plus a weekly football predictor across the season. We chose the charity because it's affected quite a few of our regular customers.

Ant, pub manager at the Rose of Lancaster who, together with his staff, has raised over £7,500 to help stop prostate cancer being a killer.
